

South Carolina Governor's School for the Arts and Humanities
 South Carolina Chapter American String Teachers Association present

Violin and Viola Workshop

Saturday • January 21, 2012 • SCGSAH Campus, Greenville, SC

About the Workshop

The South Carolina Violin and Viola Workshop is designed to offer players and teachers the opportunity to learn and practice under the guidance of master clinicians. Participants will improve and expand their fundamental playing skills in master classes and ensemble rehearsals and the workshop recital at the end of the day will give everyone a chance to perform on stage.

Workshop Schedule:

Bring a bag lunch or pre-order lunch below

8:30 am Registration
 9:00 am-5:00 pm Classes and Rehearsals
 5:30 pm Workshop Recital

The workshop is designed to accommodate beginning, intermediate, and advanced players. Advanced violin and viola students wishing to play a solo for the master class should submit a letter of recommendation from their private teacher with their application. A maximum of four students will be selected to perform.
